St. Patrick's Day

Do you believe in luck?

Do you know the Bible has no reference to "luck" anywhere in its contents? Some say they feel 'lucky', maybe they should be saying they feel 'blessed'.

Think things happen by coincidence or by luck? I don't believe so. God had a plan from the beginning of time. He has a plan for each of us. Things happen according to God's plan.

When we think we narrowly escaped an accident by luck, it is God watching over us and taking care of us. We should feel 'lucky' because we are blessed beyond what we deserve.

Religious facts

St. Patrick's Day is the Roman Catholic feast day that honors St. Patrick (387-461 AD), the patron saint of Ireland.

Because of St. Patrick's patronage, St. Patrick's Day

(March 17) has come to be closely associated with Ireland and Irish culture. Since the earliest centuries of Christianity, it has been a custom to celebrate the anniversary of saints' deaths. A "fast day" is designated for every saint, even when the exact date of death of a saint is not known. St. Patrick was a fifth-century English missionary to Ireland. Scholars agree he is a historical figure and that he converted many of the pagans on the island to Christianity, but dismiss most of the legend that has developed about him over the centuries. The feast day of St. Patrick has been observed in Ireland on March 17 for thousands of years. The date falls during the fasting season of Lent, but on St. Patrick's Day the prohibitions against eating meat were lifted, and the Irish would celebrate their patron saint feasting on traditional meal of Irish bacon and cabbage.

Prayer Breakfast

We had another prayer breakfast to pray for the many requests in the Easter Basket. We hope our prayers are answered and they will join us on Easter Sunday for service. If they don't join us maybe they will attend service where ever God leads them.

We pray that where ever they are that God will speak to them and they will answer his call.

God is still in the soul saving business and we need to do our part inviting the lost out to hear the Word of God. God can take it from there!

Home Builders

2Ch 2:5

And the house which I build is great: For great is our God above all gods.

Pastor Fred and his lovely Bride Gale are facilitating A Home Builders course For those interested in learning how to strengthen one's relationship with their significant other. This is not a counseling session. We have Fellowship time before class while enjoying snacks. We are learning how to make our relationships a priority liken unto our relationship with God.

Come join the fun!!

God Bless our Home.

Song of the Month

MERCYME

"Word Of God Speak"

I'm finding myself at a loss for words
And the funny thing is it's okay
The last thing I need is to be heard
But to hear what You would say

[CHORUS]

Word of God speak
Would You pour down like rain
Washing my eyes to see
Your majesty
To be still and know
That You're in this place
Please let me stay and rest
In Your holiness
Word of God speak

I'm finding myself in the midst of You
Beyond the music, beyond the noise
All that I need is to be with You
And in the quiet hear Your voice

[REPEAT CHORUS 2x]

I'm finding myself at a loss for words
And the funny thing is it's okay
